1. The following is an extract from a teletype of the Soviet Zone Directorate General, Railroads in Berlin, dated 1 June 1951:
"All locomotives of the reserve pool at the disposal of railroad headquarters will be removed from their sheds immediately and parked beyond the turntables so that in case of damage to the turntables, the engines will not be blocked. The first locomotive is to be prepared to be ready to be fired and supplied with water. This requires five hours. The other locomotives are to be coupled to the first locomotive." [REDACTED]
2. On 29 May 1951, Locomotive Column No 3 was still parked in Kuednitz. [REDACTED]
